Aliaa is immensely passionate towards optimizing the careers of individuals and corporates. Since 2011, through her professional accreditation as a GCDF, Job & Career Development Coach (JCDC from the Network & Career Research & Testing Inc. USA), and a Business Competence Master Trainer, she has spent more than a thousand hours coaching and training adults, and currently she is certifying Career Development Facilitators to expand the ripple effect.

Her business expertise as a holder of Masters in International Business Administration, Management & Leadership Lecturer, a Strategic Planning Manager, and Training & Development Consultant has augmented her training, coaching and counseling skills in business-related decisions of business professionals and different-size companies.

Aliaa has also been selected to participate in the Professional Fellowship Program, by the U.S. Department of State, where she delivered diverse training programs to both her peers, and the employees of the hosting organization.
